

Acquiring and Transmission of BLS 12 Lead ECGs

Instructor: _____ Name: _____
Results: _____
Date: _____

Please read each question carefully and select the most appropriate answer by circling the correct letter.

1. Who can acquire BLS 12 Lead ECG?
 - a. CFR
 - b. AEMT/EMT-B
 - c. Anyone on the crew

2. Why is it important to acquire BLS 12 Lead ECG?
 - a. Less work for the ALS provider to do
 - b. To decide on a treatment plan for my patient
 - c. To make the best patient outcome from a STEMI

3. How many leads must be placed on the patient to acquire a 12 lead?
 - a. 4
 - b. 12
 - c. 10

4. When should you call for Advanced Life Support
 - a. After acquiring the 12 Lead ECG
 - b. Before you get to the Hospital
 - c. When you feel it is necessary to complete a BLS 12 Lead

5. Must the provider shave a patient's chest with hair to acquire a 12 lead?

- a. If it causes a problem getting an accurate 12 lead
 - b. Always
 - c. Never
6. What is the closest PCI to our Response area?
- a. Jones Memorial Hospital
 - b. Buffalo General Hospital
 - c. Olean General Hospital
 - d. Mercy Hospital of Buffalo
7. A copy of the 12 lead need to remain with the PCR?
- a. Always
 - b. Sometime
 - c. Never
8. What symptoms should indicate a BLS 12 Lead
- a. Dyspnea, syncope, weakness
 - b. Traumatic Back pain
 - c. Fall of greater than 3'
9. Can a BLS Provider interpret the Rhythm or 12 Lead?
- a. Always
 - b. Sometimes
 - c. Never
10. A provider that does not adhere to the BLS 12 Lead policy will lose their privilege to practice?
- a. Always
 - b. Sometimes
 - c. Never