

Stepping outside?

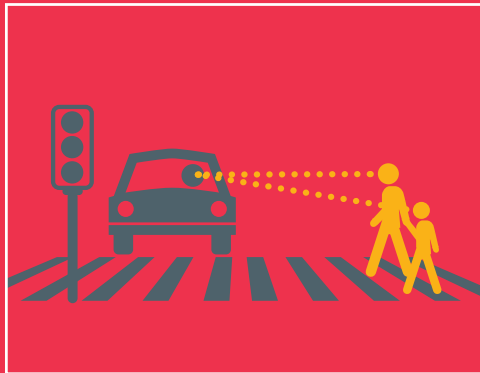

Help kids stay active and injury free.

1

Teach kids to look left, right and left again before crossing the street.

2

Make eye contact with drivers.

3

You can see the helmet when you look up.

The straps make a "V" under your ears.

The chin strap feels snug when you open your mouth wide.

Wear a properly-fitted helmet when biking.

